BOOK SYNOPSIS

The twelfth century CE was a watershed moment for mysticism in the Muslim West. In al-Andalus, the pioneers of this mystical tradition, the Mutabirun or Contemplators, championed a synthesis between Muslim scriptural sources and Neoplatonic cosmology. Ibn Barraĵān of Seville was most responsible for shaping this new intellectual approach, and is the focus of Yousef Casewits book. Ibn Barraĵān's extensive commentaries on the divine names and the Quran stress the significance of Gods signs in nature, the Arabic bible as a means of interpreting the Quran, and the mystical crossing from the visible to the unseen. With an examination of the understudied writings of both Ibn Barraĵān and his contemporaries, Ibn al-Arif and Ibn Qasi, as well as the wider socio-political and scholarly context in al-Andalus, this book will appeal to researchers of the medieval Islamic world and the history of mysticism and Sufism in the Muslim West.
